Computer Masters gets featured on popular radio talk show in Kansas City...

Overland Park, KS., August 22, 2006 – Computer Masters, LLC, Masters of Information Technology and the regions best and most unique technical support firm is being featured on a popular local radio show for its participation in the Walk for Diabetes event, September 23rd, 2006. Living Large with Karen Mills is a popular show on KMBZ 980 AM radio in Kansas City. Mike Cleveland, Founder of Computer Masters, appears in a radio segment with Karen Mills, host of Living Large, discussing the upcoming Walk for Diabetes in Corporate Woods. Living Large has sponsors like Kohler, & HGTV.

“Meeting Karen Mills in the studio was incredible, being in a broadcasting station & being part of an actual radio session was simply amazing,” said Mike Cleveland, Computer Masters Chief Technology Officer. “Computer Masters feels more than honored to have been part of the Walk for Diabetes event in Corporate Woods. To have been featured on a popular radio show in Kansas City was fantastic just for the experience, to help the American Diabetes Association is the real reason we’re all here. Karen Mills was kind enough to feature the Walk for Diabetes event on her show, to bring in sponsors like Computer Masters was more than gracious. It was certainly a fun experience.”

Computer Masters is providing free pre-diabetes screenings at the Walk for Diabetes event September 23rd, 2006. To raise funds for the Diabetes Association, Computer Masters also plans to raffle off a new laptop and other door prizes to those who donate to the Walk for Diabetes drive September 23rd at the Computer Masters booth.
